

International Conference on Economic History
“Market Integration during the Modernization in East Asia”
at Keimyung University, Korea
February 21, 2017

Organizers: Myungsoo Kim (Keimyung University), Kiyotaka Maeda (Seinan Gakuin University), and Akihiko Noda (Kyoto Sangyo University)

Co-sponsored:

JSPS Grant in Aid for Scientific Research (C) No. 26380397 (Mikio Ito)

JSPS Grant in Aid for Young Scientists (B) No. 26780199 (Kiyotaka Maeda)

JSPS Grant in Aid for Scientific Research (C) No.15K03542 (Akihiko Noda)

9:00 Registration

9:50 - 10:00 Opening Remarks: Myungsoo Kim (Keimyung University)

10:00 - 12:00 Session 1: Commodity Markets

Chair: Kentaro Saito (Kyoto Sangyo University)

Speaker#1: Myungsoo Kim (Keimyung University)

“A Study on the Establishment and Operation of Incheon Rice Exchange during Colonial Korea under Japanese Rule”

Speaker#2: Mikio Ito (Keio University), Kiyotaka Maeda (Seinan Gakuin University), and Akihiko Noda (Kyoto Sangyo University)

“Market Integration in the Prewar Japanese Rice Markets”

Speaker#3: Jin Seok Oh (Pai Chai University), and Howard Kahm (Yonsei University)

“The Electric Policy and the Transformation of the Electric Industrial Structure in Korea under Japanese Rule”

12:00 - 13:00 Lunch

13:00 - 15:00 Session 2: Capital and Labor Markets

Chair: Myungsoo Kim (Keimyung University)

Speaker#1: Masanobu Mishina (Keio University)

“Ito Yozo’s Corporate Management and Investment in Securities”

Speaker#2: Kiyotaka Maeda (Seinan Gakuin University)

“Financial Arrangements of Small and Medium Enterprises and Regional Capital
Market in Prewar Japan”

Speaker#3: Kentaro Saito (Kyoto Sangyo University)

“Changes in Craft-structure and Labour Market Integration in Modern Japan, with Special Reference of Construction Workers 1894-1938”

15:00 - 15:10 Closing Remarks: Kiyotaka Maeda (Seinan Gakuin University)